THREE SLICK ONES

Young Men Arrested Here Today for Shop Lifting.

Alleged to Have Stolen Clothing in Local Stores.

ARE HELD ON SUSPICION

Three well dressed young men who are believed to be professional thieves were arrested last night by Captain Henry Bailey and Officers Woods, Clark and Johnson, on a charge of theft. They are thought to be shoplifters, and probably new hands in the business.

Yesterday two of them, according to the evidence the police have, went into Mr. W. K. Poage's clothing store on Broadway. One had his overcoat slung over his arm, and waited around while the other engaged one of the clerks in conversation and looked at some goods.

Finally the one with the coat over his arm left, and when Mr. Poage, whose suspicions had been excited by the men's actions, followed him to the door, he walked rapidly to the nearest corner and disappeared.

Last night the police learned where some new clothing had been sold, and later secured a description of the young men who sold it. They searched for them until they were found.

The prisoners have been here about a week, and are believed to have gone to Mayfield for the carnival, but finding that the carnival attractions failed to get there, and that there was "nothing doing," they came on here where they would have a wider field for their operations.

Mr. Poage says that their actions in his store did not betray the cunning of expert thieves. The men refused to say anything when arrested.

A suit of dark blue clothing and a pair of pants that they sold were identified this morning, the suit as having been stolen from Mr. Poage's and the trousers from Wallerstein's.

The police have information that the men also sold a bolt of silk somewhere and hope to find it and locate the owner. Thus far only two charges of petty larceny can be preferred, as neither the suit nor the trousers are worth twenty dollars separate, and they were taken at different times. The police hope to secure a case against them for grand larceny.

The cases were called this morning in police court and continued. A warrant will probably be issued against the men for obtaining money by false pretenses, as they are alleged to have sold the stolen goods, claiming that the property belonged to them.

CHIMNEY CAVES IN

Accident at the Iron Furnace Yesterday.

The Fires Will Have to be Banked Until Defect is Repaired.

A portion of the huge chimney at the Kentucky Iron Co. furnace at Third and Norton streets caved in yesterday and the fires had to be temporarily banked.

The base of the furnace is made of brick and the portion facing the river caved in. The cause of the defect is not known, but is supposed to have been original weakness. The hole in the wall is about three feet in diameter and will require some time to repair. The furnaces had been running about two weeks this last time. Much ore is being brought out of the Cumberland river and the furnaces had started up to run for many months, as long as ore could be procured. The break will be repaired immediately and the furnaces started up again.

JERSEY CAMP No. 10 W. O. W. will give a grand masquerade benefit ball at Broadfoot's hall Monday night, April 13.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $670,525
Same week last year 863,390
Decrease 192,865

Bank clearings this week show a big falling off from the same week last year. This is accounted for, however, from the fact that the transactions for the same week last year included payments on account of the Paducah Coal and Mining company deal which made the clearings abnormal. Business with the banks is very good. Deposits are big and money in good demands.

Wholesale business has been good all week in all lines and collections fair. There are less complaints regarding deliveries due to better traffic facilities, and jobbing activities indicate great consumption as the season advances.

The retailers have been very busy all week, and the report, the universal one, is that the Easter trade this year has been the best in the history of the local trade. The streets have been crowded with buyers today, and all week the activity has been great.

Real estate trade is just opening up well for the spring season. Inquiries are plentiful, and a number of trades are being made. The indications are far a very active season.

The Kentucky Iron company had to shut down yesterday on account of an accident, an account of which is given in another column, and won't get started up for about a week.

WAIT FOR PLAYERS

Baseball Ground to be Ready by Tuesday.

The Paducah Professional Team Will All be Here By That Day, It Is Thought.

BIG OPENING IS PROMISED

Manager Sam Jackson is now awaiting the arrival of his players and will begin practice as soon as they reach here.

He stated this morning that LeCompte has written from Danville to the effect that he would arrive in Paducah Monday afternoon and be ready for work Tuesday. The remainder of the team will arrive on Monday and Tuesday and by Wednesday the entire team will be here and ready to go into practice. The grounds were "skinned" yesterday and the roller is being worked today. The grounds will be ready for practice by Tuesday and the team will lose no time in going into hard training. Hedges and Kenney are working hard and Hedges shows remarkable speed. He was in pretty good shape last year, but this year is in the pink of condition. His many friends predict a remarkable success for him.

On the 15th the schedule committee will meet at Hopkinsville and arrange the schedule. The league will begin playing by the 29th. An effort will be made to start up on the 28th, but it is thought this cannot be accomplished.

The association members have been negotiating for a brass band at the opening of the park and will probably celebrate the event with great pomp.

REFUSED TO MAKE APPROPRIATIONS.

Louisville, April 11—The fiscal courts of Graves and Hancock counties refused to make an appropriation for the state exhibit at St. Louis.

BURNED TO DEATH

Horrible Fate of a Little Child at Hazelwood.

It Is Supposed to Have Ignited Its Clothing With a Match.

FOUND DEAD BY MOTHER

The 3 year old daughter of Mr. Thomas Dale of Hazelwood, Ballard county, about twenty-five miles from the city, was burned to death late yesterday afternoon.

The child was left alone in a room by its mother, who stepped out. When she returned a short time afterward she was horrified to find it dead, its clothing being burned off and its flesh burned to a crisp.

There had been no fire in the room and it is supposed the infant in some way got hold of a match and in striking it ignited its clothing, and burned to death. The deplorable mishap caused great grief in that section when it became known. Mr. Dale is well known in Paducah, and has relatives here. The burial of the remains took place today.

FOR ONE DOLLAR.

NEGRO ROUSTER TAKES OUT PAPERS AGAINST HOPKINS.

Tom Martin, colored, a deckhand on the steamer John S. Hopkins, this morning took out preliminary summons against the steamer Hopkins to secure $1 claimed to be due him for services rendered. The case was passed on by Commissioner Gardner this morning and a judgment for the boat rendered. This is one of the smallest claims ever entered against a boat and taken to the commissioner for settlement.

Mr. John Rock returned to Cedar Bluff today after a business trip to the city.

POLITICAL CHATTER

Many Men Talked of for the Democratic Nomination.

Mayor Yeiser Is Still Mum About His Prospective Candidacy.

REPUBLICANS RESTING EASY

Interest is growing in the mayoralty contest, and apparently as the prospective candidates increase in numbers Mayor Yeiser secretly felicitates within himself, for the more the merrier, and the more in the race the better will be his chances of winning the nomination.

Still Mayor Yeiser will not say that he will be a candidate. It is reported that he told a friend yesterday that he would positively be a candidate, but this morning he would not say as much to a reporter who asked him if he was going to run.

He said repeatedly during the uncertainty of the city's class agitation that if an election were necessary this year he would run, but since the decision settling this point he will not say positively what he intends to do.

A new candidate being mentioned is Col. John Sinnott, Sr. As he is at present off on a trip it cannot be stated whether he will make the race or not.

Alderman Gus Singleton stated that he was not ready to announce his intentions, but the general impression is that he will not run, especially if Mayor Yeiser is in the contest.

Mr. A. J. Decker, who has been mentioned as a probable candidate, states that he will not make the race for the nomination. He has been strongly urged to enter the contest, because he is a progressive, liberal-minded man with many friends, but will not consent.

Col. R. G. Caldwell is not expected to announce before June some time. Some of the prominent Democrats want to stave off municipal election talk until after the state primary, but they have not succeeded very well thus far.

Col. Joe Potter is still the only announced candidate.

The Republicans are not worrying over the nominations at present. There is plenty of time and they expect to put out a good, strong ticket. Among those mentioned for mayor are: L. S. DuBois, Dr. Frank Boyd, Capt. Ed Farley, Mr. J. K. Bondurant, Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, Mr. C. H. Chamblin and Mr. O. B. Starks, both the latter at present aldermen, Capt. J. R. Smith, Attorney E. W. Bagby, Capt. J. E. Williamson, Attorney Armour Gardner, John Rinckhoff and many others.

WANT THE PLACE.

APPLICATIONS FOR VACANT TEACHERSHIP.

George Robinson, a colored teacher, is in the city today to confer with Superintendent Hatfield and members of the school board relative to securing a position in the schools here. Robinson graduated from the University of Louisville. He desires to be placed in the schools to succeed Prof. Nuckolls, who has been asked to resign. Albert Samples, another prospective teacher, a graduate of last year's class, is also an applicant for the position, but will probably go to Chicago, where he has an offer of a teachership.

GOES TO OWENSBORO.

COL. JOHN K. HENDRICK WILL BE THERE MONDAY.

It was stated this afternoon by friends of Colonel John K. Hendrick that he will go to Owensboro Monday. It is not known whether he will ask Governor Beckham for a division of time or not, but the reports sent out from Frankfort that he would not go seem to be erroneous.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dains have moved from Clark street where they have been residing for some time, and are now living at 719 Clay street.

THE USUAL FAKES

Special Train Yarn Was Out of Whole Cloth.

It Is Reported Mr. Hendrick Will Not Follow Mr. Beckham.

HENDRICK GETS ADVICE

Frankfort, Ky., April 11—Governor Beckham and his friends are busily engaged in preparations for the chief executive's tour through Western Kentucky, where he will deliver the first week's speeches of his campaign. They laugh at the story emanating from Paducah, that the governor was to make his tour aboard a special train.

The charge in an Owensboro paper, that the train would be furnished Governor Beckham gratis because of his known spirit of friendliness toward all corporations, is not relished by his friends, who insist the story is a mere fabrication, and the charge the work of his political enemies.

The Beckham men do not presume to state what would be Governor Beckham's decision in event he did receive an invitation from Colonel Hendrick for a division of time, but are not adverse to stating they believe that the Hendrick managers are only "bluffing."

They also disclaim that he has been the recipient of any communication from John K. Hendrick requesting a division of time, but admit that he did receive such an invitation from Judge Breckinridge.

Colonel Hendrick's managers here have advised him to not attend Beckham's speaking. The matter was fully discussed and it was decided the better policy to ignore Governor Beckham, unless he made statements derogatory to Colonel Hendrick's canvass and claims upon the nomination.

It is believed tonight Colonel Hendrick will view the matter in the same light and refrain from attempting to secure any recognition from Governor Beckham. Hendrick's managers here advise him to fill all his appointments and freely predict Beckham's defeat.

SUCCEEDS HUBBARD.

MR. R. D. HAPPY RETURNS AS DEPUTY COLLECTOR.

Mr. Ed Hubbard, division agent of internal revenue, with headquarters at this city, has resigned his position with the government effective May 1 and will open an office here and practice law.

Mr. Hubbard has been in the revenue service for five years and two years ago succeeded Mr. R. D. Happy as deputy here. Mr. Happy retired from the service and has since been residing at Mayfield. Mr. Hubbard and will arrive here on May 1 to take charge of the office.

Mr. Hubbard came to Paducah originally to practice law, but had never found a suitable opening. He stated today that he intended to resign in July, but a few days ago received notice that a change would be made April 11, today. He objected to such summary action, and it was then agreed to have it effective May 1.

ROLLER AFIRE.

THE TOP WORKS ALMOST BURNED OFF.

Street Inspector Eaker this afternoon reported that the street roller came near burning up this morning. It was being operated on lower Washington street when the woodwork on top caught fire and burned off. The damage will be considerable and it will be some time to come.

TO BE TRIED TOMORROW—Hiram Mitherson and Jim Brooks, colored, got full of "dope," it is said, and tried to take charge of the steamer Tennessee this morning. They were arrested and will be given a hearing tomorrow morning in Judge Sanders' court.

The charge in an Owensboro paper, that the train would be furnished Governor Beckham gratis because of his known spirit of friendliness toward all corporations, is not relished by his friends, who insist the story is a mere fabrication, and the charge the work of his political enemies.

The Beckham men do not presume to state what would be Governor Beckham's decision in event he did receive an invitation from Colonel Hendrick for a division of time, but are not adverse to stating they believe that the Hendrick managers are only "bluffing."

They also disclaim that he has been the recipient of any communication from John K. Hendrick requesting a division of time, but admit that he did receive such an invitation from Judge Breckinridge.

Colonel Hendrick's managers here have advised him to not attend Beckham's speaking. The matter was fully discussed and it was decided the better policy to ignore Governor Beckham, unless he made statements derogatory to Colonel Hendrick's canvass and claims upon the nomination.

It is believed tonight Colonel Hendrick will view the matter in the same light and refrain from attempting to secure any recognition from Governor Beckham. Hendrick's managers here advise him to fill all his appointments and freely predict Beckham's defeat.

SUCCEEDS HUBBARD.

MR. R. D. HAPPY RETURNS AS DEPUTY COLLECTOR.

Mr. Ed Hubbard, division agent of internal revenue, with headquarters at this city, has resigned his position with the government effective May 1 and will open an office here and practice law.

Mr. Hubbard has been in the revenue service for five years and two years ago succeeded Mr. R. D. Happy as deputy here. Mr. Happy retired from the service and has since been residing at Mayfield. Mr. Happy has been reappointed to succeed Mr. Hubbard and will arrive here on May 1 to take charge of the office.

Mr. Hubbard came to Paducah originally to practice law, but had never found a suitable opening. He stated today that he intended to resign in July, but a few days ago received notice that a change would be made April 11, today. He objected to such summary action, and it was then agreed to have it effective May 1.

SUES THE COUNTY.

DR. FRANK BOYD INSTITUTES PROCEEDINGS FOR FULL AMOUNT.

Dr. Frank Boyd in circuit court yesterday afternoon late filed suit against the county for $900 claimed to be due for services as county health officer during the recent smallpox. This suit is the culmination of the smallpox trouble between county officials. The bill was presented to fiscal court, and although finally a compromise of something over $400 was offered by Dr. Boyd, the magistrates refused to allow it. He has now filed suit for the amount, and, judging from past decisions of courts, both circuit and appellate, the county will have to pay the whole bill, costs and all.

THE GUN CLUB.

A LIVELY SHOOT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The match between Messrs Tom Sanders and Robert Rivers did not come off yesterday afternoon at the Gun club grounds because of Dr. Rivers' injury in the street car accident. There was a 25 live bird event, however, in which E. Brady of Union City, Tenn., killed 24, Tom Sanders and Henry Arenz 23, and Dr. Hansbro 21. The target matches were also interesting.

GOOD ENGLISH

THIS IS WHAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ONCE SAID OF "SPIT."

New York, April 11—In a statement given out by Commissioner Lederle, of the board of health, it is set forth that letters have been received objecting to the use of the word "Spit" in the board of health ordinance, and asking that the word "expectorate" be substituted. In this connection Commissioner Lederle makes public a letter received by the health department from Theodore Roosevelt, when the latter was police commissioner, asking that the word "spit" be used instead of "expectorate." The letter follows:

"Police Headquarters,
"New York, March 21, 1903.
"The Hon. Charles E. Wilson, President Health Board:
"Dear President Wilson—Can't you have our form of notice changed so as to read 'spit' instead of 'expectorate'? Expectorate is a vile word and the health board ought to use good English.

Paine's Celery Compound

Paine's Celery Compound, so vastly superior as a spring medicine to all other known remedies in pill and liquid form, and so remarkable in its power over disease, has no equal in the world as a spring nerve food, blood cleanser and system fortifier. At this season, when the majority of people feel the necessity of a tonic for the weakened system and a regulator for the nerves and digestive apparatus,

MRS. MANUEL BARRANCO.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one preparation indorsed by the ablest physicians for spring renovating and recuperating. In severe cases of persistent headaches, nervous prostration, neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney and liver troubles and female irregularities Paine's Celery Compound has a record of wondrous and lasting cures in every city of this great land. The honest use of the Compound for the next two or three weeks will guarantee improved appetite, sound digestion, sweet sleep, nerve power and a condition of health that will make you happy during the coming summer. Mrs. Manuel Barranco, Havana, Cuba, says:

"For some time I suffered terrible agonies, and I was in a critical condition. Insomnia, nervousness, deranged digestion and general weakness brought me near the grave. After medical skill failed I was advised to use Paine's Celery Compound. I am happy to report that after using your precious Compound for two weeks my insomnia was banished, and I rapidly began to regain health and strength. I am now in full enjoyment of new life, vigor and happiness. Paine's Celery Compound is worthy of all praise."

TOTAL ECLIPSE

The Moon Will Go Into the Shadow Tonight.

The Phenomenon Will Only Be Partially Visible, However

The moon will be in almost total eclipse this evening, but the conditions are such that only a small portion of the eclipse will be visible here, and, indeed, there is good reason for doubt that it will be seen here at all. The eclipse will begin before the moon rises above the horizon, and after it does rise there will still be sufficient daylight to take away the effect of the shadow on the face of the moon.

The eclipse will be practically total, ninety-seven and three-tenths of the surface being immersed in the shadow. By the time the moon has risen above the horizon and becomes visible it will be well out of the shadow, and were not the fact announced in advance few would ever guess that an eclipse was in progress. The sun does not act until exactly four minutes after the appearance of the moon, and before the lunar body is well up in the heavens so that it may be seen the shadow will have passed completely over its face.

An interesting point in connection with the eclipse is that the moon is the Paschal moon, that is, the one that determines Easter day. Easter is one of the movable feasts of the church and comes on the first Sunday after the first full moon after March 21. Tonight the first full moon after the beginning of spring will rise and tomorrow being the first Sunday after becomes Easter day.

GOES SOUTH.

"DUTCH CHARLIE" WAS DISAPPOINTED IN MAYFIELD THIS WEEK.

"Dutch Charlie," the hot waffle man, arrived from Mayfield yesterday afternoon where he had gone to work the carnival that failed to show up. Charlie went down last Sunday and expected to do a land office business but was sadly disappointed. He stated that the entire carnival outfit was wrecked on the M. and O. road and everything hopelessly damaged. This is the reason the carnival failed to arrive. It required several days to learn the exact cause of the delay, but the carnival promoters were finally notified of the wreck and announced the fact as soon as the news was received. "Dutch Charlie" left this morning for Murfreesboro, Tenn., where he will remain through the street fair. He will go to Knoxville and other Tennessee cities to work fairs, returning to this city in time to attend the carnival.

Irregularity and Nervousness

This Testimony of 1,500,000 Cured Women Confirmed by MRS. EMILIE DANFORTH, 233 Thirty-Second Street, Chicago,
Vice-President Woman's Indian Association.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 29, 1902.

I feel it my duty to let my afflicted sisters know of the potency of Wine of Cardui for female troubles. It takes the place of a doctor in my family. I have had experience with different kinds of medicine but nothing I ever saw or heard of would compare with your medicine. It is an ideal home medicine and when doctors fail Wine of Cardui will cure. It cured me of irregularities and nervousness when I felt as if nothing I did would help me. People don't sympathize with those suffering with unstrung nerves. I want to thank you most heartily for what Wine of Cardui has done for me and mine. I am in perfect health now and it is all due to your medicine which is certainly without an equal.

Emilie Danforth

It is women's nature to be patient. A nervous, irritable woman is always sick. The scolding of the housewife is generally the cry of distress of some suffering mother, racked with unstrung nerves caused by irregular menstruation, bearing down pains or some other form of female weakness that is making her not herself. Household cares never wring from the heart the cry of anguish that the torture of bearing down pains do.

It is female weakness that is killing so many mothers. It is sad to see sweet tempered and loving mothers becoming haggard, sickly, cross and nervous unlovely creatures when even their nearest relatives and dearest friends never know enough of the truth to give sympathy.

People do not understand female weakness and its power to crush a woman's life. Mrs. Danforth knows about it and she wrote this letter to show sick, tired, nervous and worn out women the way to health.

She has shown you that Wine of Cardui is the best and surest medicine to take to secure health. You owe it to your family and friends to secure health. You can have health by taking Wine of Cardui. Why not begin now? There is no better time. There is no surer way. Wine of Cardui imparts health and strength to the female organism. This relieves the nerves of strain and tension. This medicine eliminates bearing down pains. It banishes the last traces of irritation of the membranes and maintains regularity in the menstrual flow.

AN EASTER SONG.

Arise, my heart, and sing, thy Easter song!
To the great anthem of returning bird,
And sweetening bud, and green, ascending blade,
Add thou thy word.
Long was the winter and the waiting long;
Heart, there were hours, indeed, thou wert afraid,
So long the Spring delayed.
Now sweetly blows the Resurrection horn
Across the meadows over the far hills!
In the soul's garden a new sweetness stirs,
And the heart fills,
And in and out the mind flow the soft airs.
Arise, my heart, and sing, this Eastern morn;
In the year's resurrection do thy part—
Arise, my heart!
—Richard Le Gallienne in April Success.

AT EASTER-TIDE.

The "usual Lenten quietude" might be classed as "gay" compared to this week which has had little beyond the club meetings to vary it. Holy week seems to have been rigorously observed by society this year.
Every one has been quite busy, though, with the Easter preparations and the various church bazaars, Easter sales, etc., have furnished sufficient outlet for any one's surplus energy. The custom of giving gifts at Easter is being every year more emphasized, and the growing demand is being met with many attractive articles. The display of flowers is more than usually attractive and elaborate this year and promises much for the beauty of the Easter decorations. Easter is a glorious and happy occasion, and every one seems to be striving to make it more so each year, as should be done. It means more to us all as the years go on and in the light of this Twentieth century.

There have been few announcements of Post-Lenten entertainments as yet, but the coming week will not be without its attractions.

The coming of the monitor Arkansas will be made a gala event. A club dance for some time during the week and Henrietta Crozman at The Kentucky on Friday night are two other events of more than usual interest to society.

AN EASTER WEDDING.

A pretty Easter wedding will be that of Miss May Paxton and Mr. Peter Puryear which will be quietly solemnized at the bride's home on West Jefferson street on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Father H. W. Jansen of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church will perform the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few out-of-town friends. The only attendants will be Mr. James Paxton and Mr. Edwin Paxton, brothers of the bride.

The Easter flowers and plants will be used with charming effect in the house decorations.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave on the 11:30 train for a bridal trip east that will include Washington City, Philadelphia and New York, and will be absent until about May the first.

Miss Paxton is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Paxton, and is very talented and charming, with many fine and lovable qualities that have endeared her to a large circle of friends.

Mr. Puryear is the assistant cashier of the Citizens' Savings bank, and is a rising young man of fine business qualities. He is the oldest son of the late T. H. Puryear, one of Paducah's foremost citizens and most popular men, and has many friends here where he has always lived.

CHESS, CHECKERS AND WHIST CLUB TO ENTERTAIN

The directors of the Chess, Checkers and Whist club held a meeting Friday night and decided to give their big annual social and smoker on the evening of Wednesday, April 22. These occasions are always delightful events, and the club is noted for doing the thing in the proper way. The following committees have the affair in charge and are sufficient guarantee for its assured success:

Invitation committee—Nolan Van Culin, Henry Diehl and Ernest Sartor.
Glad hand committee—Harry Hank, and Dr. Coleman.

Arrangements committee—C. W. Thompson, Fred Nagel and Thomas Lydon.
Committee on music—Emmett Bagby, Parker Chastaine and Harry Gilbert.

Committee on fiddling—Judge R. T. Lightfoot, Judge W. M. Reed and Dr. J. R. Coleman.

RED MEN ENTERTAIN.

The Otega tribe of Red Men gave a ladies' social at their wigwam on North Fourth street on Wednesday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock. A pleasing feature was the surprise marriage of one of the members, Mr. Walter England to Miss Mattie Bellamy. The ceremony was performed by County Judge R. T. Lightfoot in the robes of the lodge prophet, and the attendants were the officers of the lodge in their official robes. It was a very striking scene, and had been planned by the arrangement committee as a complete surprise. A social evening followed, and at 11 o'clock an elaborate banquet was served in the club room. Quite a number of guests were present and the occasion was most pleasant.

MONDAY NIGHT CLUB.

The Monday Night club, the new social club of the Y. M. C. A., held its second meeting on Monday evening at the association building. It was a most pleasant occasion. Mr. H. K. Fitch of St. Louis gave a clever sleight-of-hand performance and music and games varied the evening. Delightful refreshments were served. There were twenty-five members present, and Prof. Paul N. Peck was president and Mr. Anderson Wood secretary. The club will meet every two weeks, and a committee, with Secretary S. B. Hanna as chairman, was appointed to arrange the program for the next meeting.

JAPANESE TEA.

The Charity club will give a Japanese Tea on Friday afternoon, April 17, from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Miss Martha Leech, 815 Madison street. It will be a very charming social event, and tea will be served in regulation Japanese style by attractive girls in the native costume. It will be one of the prettiest and most effective afternoon teas of the charming series since January. The usual 10 cents admission will be charged, and there should be a large attendance as the club has some outstanding bills to settle before disbanding for the summer.

POPULAR SINGER'S BENEFIT.

Miss Alma Hays, the popular singer, is preparing to give a benefit concert about the 28th of this month, and the best local talent will aid her in the recital. She expects to secure the services of the Choral society and also of the Prof. Harry Gilbert or Prof. William Deal orchestra. She intends to study for the operatic stage this summer in Chicago and desires to leave for that city on May 1. She is already forming plans for her concert and will give the people the best possible to procure in the music line.

INDUSTRIAL CLUB.

Miss Bertha Mertz was the hostess of the Industrial club on Wednesday afternoon, entertaining very delightfully at her home on Adams street. A portion of the afternoon was spent with fancy work, after which an attractive course-luncheon was served. The guests were: Mesdames E. W. Bookmon, P. F. Lally, George Katterjohn, Henry Kamleiter, Robert Rudolph, Jesse Gilbert, Frank Gardner, Jeff Read; Misses Schauf of Cairo, Mary Berger, Rosa Runge, Louise Rottgering.

A PLEASURE HOME.

Paducah's summer colony will receive a delightful addition this year. Mr. Oscar L. Gregory who has a summer home adjoining "The Pines" property, is erecting a bungalow nearby, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cook Husbands and Miss Emma Reed after June 1. It has been christened "The Cabbage Patch" and will have all the charm and spontaneity that could be given by Mrs. Wiggs herself.

DELPHIC CLUB.

The Delphic club met with Mrs. J. C. Flournoy on Tuesday morning and enjoyed a three-fold discussion of Michael Angelo, as man, artist and sculptor. Miss Mattie Fowler gave an interesting account of "The Man." "The Artist" was the subject of a clever paper by Mrs. George Flournoy, and "The Sculptor" was delightfully discussed by Mrs. Campbell Flournoy.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Frank Barnard entertained a number of children with a party at "The Inn" on Monday evening. It was a "lemon squeeze" and the young guests had a most enjoyable time. Among those present were: Helen Powell, Edith Sherrill, Nellie Cave, Turner Powell, Lag Powell, Edwin Cave, Jack Cave, Ben Wallace, Philip Wallace, Bruce Barnard.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

An unique entertainment was given by the Ramsey society of the Broadway Methodist church in the Epworth league parlors of the church on Thursday evening. It was an "Easter Hat Sale," and a number of "millinery confections of high art" were humorously auctioned off. Light refreshments were served.

A COMPLIMENTARY TEA.

Miss Louise Rottgering entertained with an elaborate supper on Friday evening at her home in Rowland Place, in honor of Miss Lottie Schauf of Cairo, who is the guest of the Misses Pieper. The occasion also celebrated Miss Rottgering's birthday in a very delightful way.

INFORMAL EVENING.

Miss Rosebud Fowler entertained a few friends very delightfully at her home on Court street on Thursday evening with a guessing contest. It was a very charming affair, with some novel features. A pretty course-luncheon was served late.

D. A. R. MEETING.

The Daughters of the American Revolution met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George O. Hart, Jefferson street. It was the regular meeting for April, but no business of importance was transacted. A pleasant social meeting was enjoyed.

CHARITY CLUB.

The Charity club met on Wednesday morning at the Palmer house and considered various matters of importance. It was arranged to give the final afternoon tea of the season on the Friday following Easter.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

The Choral society met on Monday evening at the First Christian church.

The society will give a cantata soon after Easter and is hard at work on that at present.

FLINCH CLUB.

Miss Corinne Winstead is the hostess of the Flinch club this afternoon at her home on Washington street.

THE COMING WEEK.

The Delphic club will meet with Mrs. J. C. Flournoy on Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary Berger will entertain the Industrial club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Schwab will entertain the Whist club on Tuesday evening at their home on North Sixth street.

The Magazine club will be entertained by Mrs. Victor Voris on Thursday afternoon at her home on Broadway. Quotations will be given from Kentucky authors.

The Union Encampment of local Odd Fellows will give an entertainment at the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening. An attractive program of music and recitations by some notable talent will be rendered and oysters will be served.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Lillian Rudy left this week to spend Sunday at Dawson.

Mrs. Franklin Leavitt and sons David and Maurice, of St. Louis, are visiting Mrs. Leavitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Nash of North Ninth street.

Miss Fannie Lou Wigglesworth of Fayette county, Ky., is expected to visit Miss Odie Puryear of Broadway. Miss Wigglesworth made many friends here during a previous visit.

Miss Mae Peters, of Memphis, is the popular guest of Miss Martha Leech this week. Miss Peters will leave next week for Nashville, Tenn., where she will visit before returning home.

Miss Sadie Slack of Owensboro, will arrive Monday to visit the Misses Paxton of West Jefferson street, and to be present at the marriage of Miss May Paxton and Mr. Peter Puryear on Wednesday.

Mr. Marshall Puryear arrived home from school at Spring Hill, Tenn., this week, to spend the Easter holidays. He will remain to the wedding of his brother, Mr. Peter Puryear to Miss May Paxton on Wednesday.

"Hobson's Choice"

Tobias Hobson was the first man in England who let out hackney horses.

When anyone wished to hire a horse, he was obliged to take the one standing nearest the stable door—he had no selection. Hence the old proverb, so familiar now, was born:

"To elect there is but one—
'Tis Hobson's choice—take that or none."

Before the introduction of Uneeda Biscuit buying soda crackers in a paper bag, was like hiring Hobson's horses—there was no choice. In kind and quality there was but one—take that or else take none. Whether stale, soggy, dirty or old—'twas ever the same "Hobson's Choice."

Uneeda Biscuit in In-er-seal Packages have revolutionized this old method and set an example that has received the stamp of public approval, as the sale of over 200,000,000 5 cent packages attest.

The In-er-seal Package insures their quality, cleanliness and crispness, because it is airtight, moisture proof, dust proof and germ proof.

AN AWAKENING AT HAND.

It certainly speaks well for the county when the progress manifested in the demand for more and larger schools and for better roads is taken into consideration. McCracken county is one of the best in the state, and with the proper effort could be made
one of the most progressive, productive and up-to-date. By up-to-date is meant one with good roads, good schools and modern public institutions,
and the class of men who realize the necessity and importance of such. A little enterprise on part of the proper officials will do much towards developing the latent spirit of progress that exists in the minds of residents of the county, and bring about a great good.
There is seldom any reduction in the amount of taxes levied in McCracken,
and if the people would stop to think more about what becomes of this money they would soon more fully realize the justice of getting their money's worth and the fact that they are not doing it.

The good roads move is one that if successfully carried out will save much money, in addition to affording the people better roads, facilitating travel and traffic, and benefiting the people of the city and county alike in many ways. The Sun, like every other paper that considers the welfare of the people above everything else,
believes in urging the officials to take up such work and educate the people
up to it, where they are not already so, and believes in giving credit to those officials who accomplish good
along the lines indicated, no matter
what their politics.

McCracken county is now preparing, from all indications, to enter a new era, and one of progress. With new and better schools and good roads
the demand for more will increase as the benefits become more and more evident, and soon the vaunted blue grass counties will be far surpassed by McCracken, the best and most important county in the Purchase.

The rest of the state must think that McCracken county is a fine county, and that the magistrates of our fiscal court must be an enterprising, progressive lot of men, with an abundant of pride in their state and county. As McCracken county has money, and the effort to secure a suitable exhibit for Kentucky at the World's Fair is generally regarded all over the state by the most prominent men as a laudable one, it would be hard to conceive of or frame any apology for the action of this court in refusing to make a donation as other counties are doing. As long as the people put indifferent, narrow-minded men in office they may expect to be humiliated before the rest of the state.

The decision in the Northern Securities case is another victory for the Republican administration, and it is claimed it will not be the business interests of the case, however, is not

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All
How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor.
Simply send your name and address to Dr.
Knapp Medical Co., 300 Hall Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt
with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts
taken from their daily mail show what men
think of their generosity.

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely brace me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."
"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautifully.
Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed,
and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men.
I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man
to have it.

taken to the United States supreme court, where it would have gone in any event, as the government would have appealed had it lost. The railroad magnates concerned take their defeat good-naturedly, however, and say that the roads are still running and paying good dividends, and despite the decision it is not yet clear
how the property can be taken away
from the lawful owners.

The candidates already announced
for city nominations are very popular at present. They spend their money for announcement cards to distribute around the city, pay for standing announcements in the newspapers, and disport themselves with the boys, especially when they cannot escape. It is all very nice now, but this is only April, and it will have to keep up until September. It is to be a poor man's Democratic primary now—for every man who runs in it will probably be poor by the time it comes off.

Scientists are searching for some department of government in Missouri
that has escaped the boodling habit.
It is devoutly to be hoped that the enterprising grafters will not also steal
the World's Fair, at least until we have all seen it.

As long as Former Mayor Lang has his dander up and typewriters are cheap Mayor Yeiser had better remain uncertain of whether he will run for the nomination or not.

It can safely be promised Capt.
Vreeland and his men that they will not have to fill up on river water
while they are in Paducah.

Jim Howard will probably have as much trouble getting justice at Frankfort as he had getting a jury.

BENTON NEWS

NARROW ESCAPE OF A FARMER —MAN DROPS DEAD.

Benton, Ky., April 11—Henry Edwards of near Birmingham was plowing and in his field was a tree that was burning, which fell across the team of horses with which Mr. Edwards was plowing. It knocked both horses down and crippled them very badly, but it is thought that they will eventually recover.

Johnnie Hurt, a young married man
of Hardin, who had been in poor health for some time, fell dead while sitting on his horse in front of a drug store waiting for medicine. This was a sad blow for his family, with whom we deeply sympathize.

A large stock barn belonging to Abe Pugh, who lives about two miles east of Palma, together with a lot of feed-stuff, was burned to the ground on last Wednesday. It is supposed the fire caught from a spark from a sawmill which was located near.

FIRST GAME.

MATCH BASEBALL CONTEST AR- RANGED FOR TOMORROW.

Manager Thomas Robison of the I.
C. railroad team has arranged a match game with the Sterling team to be played back of the railroad shops,
near Huntington Row, Sunday afternoon. This will be the first match game of the season and a large attendance will probably be out to witness the sport.

SHOT BY RELATIVES.

Carbondale, Ill., April 11—John R.
Melton was shot and probably fatally injured by Garfield and John Shadow-
ens, his brothers-in-law.

The shooting occurred during a conference in which the Shadowens brothers sought to arrange for the case of their sister by her husband, Melton. The Shadowens brothers were arrested. They allege self-defence.

BECKHAM CAN'T COME

He Hopes the Banquet Will be Enjoyed.

Cairo's Mayor Will Probably Be Here
—Arkansas Due To—
tomorrow.

RECEIVE HEARTY WELCOME

Governor Beckham cannot attend
the banquet to be tendered the commander and other officers of the Arkansas Monday night at the Palmer house, as he on Monday starts his campaign and will be unable to get here.

In response to the invitation sent him, he today telegraphed as follows:
Frankfort, Ky., April 11—Mayor
D. A. Yeiser, Paducah. Sorry that previous engagement will prevent my acceptance of your kind invitation.
Hope occasion may be a pleasant one for the good city of Paducah.

Signed: J. W. O. Beckham.

The following telegram was also received:

Hon. D. A. Yeiser, Mayor of the City of Paducah: Thanks for your invitation. Will endeavor to be present at your banquet April 13.

M. O. WRIGHT, Mayor of Cairo.

The committee composed of the mayor, President Reed, of the council, President Durrett, of the aldermen and President Du Bois, of the Commercial club, will go down tomorrow
on the Dick Fowler and welcome Commander Vreeland and his vessel.

Salutes will be fired when she reaches the city and a large crowd is expected to be on hand.

The Fowler will remain over Monday and carry people over to the steamer, instead of making her regular trip to Cairo.

Preparations for the entertainment
of the visitors are progressing rapidly,
and a large crowd from surrounding cities is expected. There will be excursions on all the boats and trains,
and doubtless thousands of people will inspect the man-of-war while she is here.

The committee on reception and entertainment is composed of S. A. Fowler, chairman; Aldermen Starks and Singleton and Councilmen Johnson and Hummel. President Durrett appointed the two aldermen today.

FOR BETTER ROADS

A Meeting to be Held at Little
Union School

Several New Bridges to be Built, One
at Clark's River.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot and Road Supervisor Bert Johnson will leave this afternoon for Little Union
school house, on the Hinkleville road,
to speak at the good roads meeting tonight. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock and it is expected that several hundred farmers will be present to attend the speaking. The county will make a proposition to pay half the expenses of graveling the road in that section if the farmers will agree to pay the other half.

The next meeting will be held next Saturday at Melber. The farmers all over the county are interested in this proposition and all want to secure good roads and are willing to pay half.

Road Supervisor Bert Johnson this morning stated that there would be much improvement made on the county roads this summer. "All roads in the county will be worked," he stated, "and several new bridges will be built. We will place in a $1,000 bridge at Clark's river and three bridges, costing about $150 each, near Lamont." There is much work to be done on the roads and Supervisor Johnson will be kept pretty busy this season.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning stated that he thought the 3 per cent raise in the McCracken county assessment was a little too much and would probably send a committee to Frankfort to contest the raise. He has not decided who he will send and has until the 21st to make his appointments.

Theatrical Notes.

The scenery and costumes in "The Sword of the King," the comedy
which will be presented at The Kentucky next Friday night, by Miss Henrietta Crosman and her company
are worthy of a special consideration.
Nothing handsomer, richer, more costly or effective was ever presented on the stage. All of these accessories are new, having been made for Miss Crosman's recent engagement at the Grand Opera house, Chicago. The preparation of this production is one of the marvels of dramatic achievement.
More than three hundred persons were employed continuously night and day
in completing the stage mountings.
The result was a setting for the comedy far more handsome and elaborate than that which has been used in New York and the east. Ronald MacDonald's play, "The Sword of the King" offers liberal opportunity for rich scenic effects and costumes. There are five scenes, showing handsome exteri-
ors and interiors of stately old English
homes, while the dress of that period
calls for a gorgeous display of velvet and silk and lace for both sexes. The play itself is intensely interesting,
without a dull moment from curtain to curtain. The action is rapid, the scenes are stirring, the climaxes dramatic and effective. The chief element is comedy which is made the more telling by contrast with powerful and emotional situations. It has been said of Miss Crosman that in "The Sword of the King" she does her best work. She reveals herself both as the comedienne and the emotional actress. The characters in the play are uncommonly well drawn and all are excellently portrayed by one of the best companies that ever appeared to this country.

In one act Miss Crosman puts on boy's attire and fights a duel with the man she loves. He has mistaken her for a lad in her masquerade, and she has aroused his jealousy by pretending that she is the favorite of the girl he loves. This is one of the cleverest comedy acts ever written, and has created as much enthusiasm in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago
and other cities as anything ever played on the stage. This exhibition of her comedy gifts by Miss Crosman is followed by striking displays of emotional powers which reveal the marvelous versatility of the artist.
"The Sword of the King" is an uncommonly clever play and as presented by Miss Crosman and her gifted company, is one of the most interesting entertainments of the present dramatic season.

It is not often that two different companies play in the same theater at the same time, but that is what will happen at The Kentucky theater next week, when the two Peruchi-Beldini companies, each one a complete organization in itself, will be consolidated
for the purpose of providing a series of entertainments which, it is confidently expected, will surpass anything ever offered to the patrons of The Kentucky at popular prices.

New plays, special scenery and carefully selected talent of both companies, both dramatic and vaudeville,
assure everyone of a genuine post-lenten treat. A complete scenic production of "The New World" is the opening play for Monday night. Other plays to be presented during the week are:
"Broken Links," "Midnight in Chinatown," "The Hour of Nine," "A Guilty Wife," "At the Stroke of One"
and "The Heart of Paris," a new and carefully expurgated dramatization of Daudet's great novel, "Sapho."

The best and biggest list of inter-act vaudeville features ever seen with a repertoire company will be given between the acts. The regular inter-act program of both companies will be seen at each performance. Popular prices prevail, 10, 20 and 30 cents.
Ladies will be provided with free tickets for the opening performance, provided they are accompanied by a person holding a paid 30 cent ticket which must be purchased at the box office of the theater before 5 o'clock Monday evening.

"The Fool of School," a comedy
brimming full of ludicrous situations
and characters, was presented by the Peruchi-Beldini company at The Kentucky last night. The famous box trick was again repeated last night
and mystified the audience as much as before.

THE SCHOOL CENSUS—Mr. Will Baker, the census enumerator, has almost completed the work of taking the First and Second wards. He has thus far, he reports, secured in the First ward, 1,575 names as against 1,526 last year, and 670 in the Second ward as against 604 last year. He has some other territory yet to canvass. The other two enumerators have larger territories and will not be through for some time yet.

FOR MEALS.

WHAT TO EAT STATED BY A FOOD EXPERT.

Not all people know that by the use of food alone, when scientifically made and properly selected to produce certain results, the sick can surely be made well and the well can be surely kept well.

The subject is worth anyone's attention, for health is the sure road to happiness and it is happiness we are all seeking, so pay attention to the kind of food you eat and get results.

Many people stagger along if sick, but never think to change their food. A safe, sure way is to adopt the following diet, which is toothsome, palatable, highly nutritious, and will produce remarkable results in curing every old, chronic case of stomach and bowel trouble, frequently, kidney complaint, weak eyes (which generally come from stomach trouble) and about nine cases in ten of so-called heart disease.

Good comfortable sleep will follow the use of this diet. Breakfast: Some cooked fruit, just a trifle of sugar, a dish of Grape-Nuts put into the saucer dry just as it comes from the package. (Don't try to cook this food.) Pour a little thick, rich cream over it. Soft-boiled eggs, no meat or grease; one cup of Postum Food Coffee with good rich cream and sugar to taste. If one does hard bodily work the heavy meal should be at the middle of the day, and this to consist of soup, meat, one or two vegetables and some bread and butter, preferably entire wheat bread, and finish with a Grape-Nuts pudding or Grape-Nuts pie, or any of the toothsome and charming desserts given in the little receipt book found in each package of Grape-Nuts.

If the person is a brain worker the midday meal should be a duplicate of the breakfast and the heavy meal, given above, be taken at night.

Common sense and the adoption of scientifically selected food as here indicated will change most any sufferer from a condition of discomfort and disease to health and consequent happiness. We urge that the subject is worth anyone's careful attention.

DELIGHTED CROWD

MR. RALPH BINGHAM PLEASES A LARGE CROWD, AS USUAL.

The Ralph Bingham entertainment at the High school last night was a success in every detail. The attendance was about 250 strong and every feature of the recital was excellent and new. Mr. Bingham's music was all new except several numbers repeated by special request. His stories were also shining with novelty and he captured his hearers with the same grace as marked his former successes here. The entertainer was secured by the superintendent and teachers of the High school and was given as a benefit to secure funds with which to purchase a stereopticon. The money cleared will amount to about $30, not as much as was expected, but still quite a neat little sum. The fact that yesterday was Good Friday reduced the attendance, a great deal.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Mr. G. L. Edwards, night yardmaster at Newbern, Tenn., attempted to board a moving train last night and got a foot under a wheel. The left foot was badly mashed and two toes may have to be amputated. He was brought in the city this morning and placed in the railroad hospital.

THE GREAT TRAINED ANIMAL ARENA AT PADUCAH CARNIVAL

At every exposition and carnival in this country and abroad the star feature has always been the marvelous trained animal exhibition, where the very acme of human courage and daring, the apex of wild animal subjugation, together with a superlative degree of educational zoological features, are combined, the salient characteristics of the world's resources and a lifetime's plucky effort, perseverance and experience, as represented by the great Ferari Brothers' carnival. The efforts of others in similar lines extend the world around. The exterior of the wild animal show is a mass of rare painting, carving and gilding and electric lighting and represents the very highest degree of the decorative art. Around the sides of the interior are the great steel barred cages where-in are shown the brute creation fully and completely. The entire animal kingdom as they are represented, and from the ice-bound regions of the Arctic circle to the sun-scorched latitudes at the equator, mountain, forests, jungle, desert, plain, ice floe and frozen sea, has been ransacked to get together this vast collection, in which there is not a single interesting species missing nor one rare variety absent. There, commanded and directed by the world's greatest animal trainers, are shown man-eating lions, bloodthirsty tigers, fierce, snarling leopards, treacherous panthers, huge, shaggy bears, grave-robbing hyenas, deadly jaguars and wild fighting wolves, in as complete subjection as household cats and dogs. In the great steel cages can be seen fearless men and women taking their lives in their hands, posing in the midst of the very beasts, whose mission on earth seems but death and destruction. Education to a degree which borders on the line of human understanding is amply demonstrated and performances are given which fairly bewilder the senses of the spectator. All of this will be seen in the great arena which will be here as the crowning attraction of the Paducah free carnival May 11 to 16.

Tailor Made Clothing Is the Cheapest

That sounds like a broad statement. You may doubt it. However 'tis true.

Real economy is to be found in custom tailor clothing for the following reasons

The fabrics wear longer.
Hold their shape always.
Hold their colors.
Always look better.
Give you an air of prosperity and of having the correct thing.

The first cost is just a fraction more than the other sort.

If you will let me make your clothing you will never wear "the other sort."

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'" On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

This is the longest period on record where germs of smallpox have continued deadly. Medical experts have taken great interest in the case. The state board health is preparing a scientific statement.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Bosten-Merrill Company

Mary did not destroy Brandon's note, despite the fact that her sense of dignity had been disturbed by it, but after she had read it slipped off into her private room, read it again and put it on her escritoire. Soon she picked it up, reread it and, after a little hesitation, put it in her pocket. It remained in the pocket for a moment or two, when out it came for another perusal, and then she unfastened her bodice and put it in her bosom. Mary had been so instant upon what she was doing that she had not seen Jane, who was sitting quietly in the window, and when she turned and saw her she was so angry she snatched the note from her bosom and threw it upon the floor, stamping her foot in embarrassment and rage.

"How dare you watch me, hussy?" she cried. "You lurk around as still as the grave, and I have to look into every nook and corner wherever I go or have you spying on me?"

"I did not spy upon you, Lady Mary," said Jane quietly.

"Don't answer me! I know you did! I want you to be less silent after this. Do you hear? Cough or sing or stumble, do something, anything, that I may hear you."

Jane rose, picked up the note and offered it to her mistress, who snatched it with one hand while she gave her a sharp slap with the other. Jane ran out, and Mary, full of anger and shame, slammed the door and locked it. The note, being the cause of all the trouble, she impatiently threw to the floor again and went over to the window bench, where she threw herself down to pout. In the course of five minutes she turned her head for one fleeting instant and looked at the note, and then, after a little hesitation, stole over to where she had thrown it and picked it up. Going back to the light at the window she held it in her hand a moment and then read it once, twice, thrice. The third time brought the smile, and the note nestled in the bosom again.

Jane did not come off so well, for her mistress did not speak to her until she called her in that evening to make her toilet. By that time Mary had forgotten about the note in her bosom; so when Jane began to array her for the dance it fell to the floor, whereupon both girls broke into a laugh, and Jane kissed Mary's bare shoulder, and Mary kissed the top of Jane's head, and they were friends again.

So Brandon accepted Mary's invitation and went to Mary's dance, but his going made for him an enemy of the most powerful nobleman in the realm, and this was the way of it:

These parties of Mary's had been going on once or twice a week during the entire winter and spring, and usually included the same persons. It was a sort of coterie, whose members were more or less congenial and most of them very jealous of interlopers. Strange as it may seem, uninvited persons often attempted to force themselves in, and all sorts of schemes and manuevers were adopted to gain admission. To prevent this two guardsmen with halberds were stationed at the door. Modesty, I might say, neither thrives nor is useful at court.

When Brandon presented himself at the door, his entrance was barred, but he quickly pushed aside the halberds and entered. The Duke of Buckingham, a proud, self-important individual, was standing near the door and saw it all. Now, Buckingham was one of those unfortunate persons who never lose an opportunity to make a mistake, and, being anxious to display his zeal on behalf of the princess, stepped up to prevent Brandon's entrance.

"Sir, you will have to move out of this," he said pompously. "You are not at a jousting bout. You have made a mistake and have come to the wrong place."

"My lord of Buckingham is pleased to make rather more of an ass of himself than usual this evening," replied Brandon, with a smile, as he started across the room to Mary, whose eye he had caught. She had seen and heard it all, but instead of coming to his relief stood there laughing to herself. At this Buckingham grew furious and ran around ahead of Brandon, valiantly drawing his sword.

"Now, by heaven, fellow, make but another step, and I will run you through!" he said.

I saw it all, but could hardly realize what was going on, it came so quickly and was over so soon. Like a flash Brandon's sword was out of its sheath and Buckingham's blade was flying toward the ceiling. Brandon's sword was sheathed again so quickly that one could hardly believe it had been out at all, and, picking up Buckingham's, he said with a half smothered laugh, "My lord has dropped his sword."

He then broke its point with his heel against the hard floor, saying, "I will dull the point lest my lord, being unaccustomed to its use, wound himself." This brought peals of laughter from everybody, including the king. Mary laughed also, but, as Brandon was handing Buckingham his blade, came up and demanded:

"My lord, is this the way you take it upon yourself to receive my guests? Who appointed you, let me ask, to guard my door? We shall have to omit your name from our next list unless you take a few lessons in good manners."

This was striking him hard, and the quality of the man will at once appear plain to you when I say that he had often received worse treatment, but clung to the girl's skirts all the more tenaciously. Turning to Brandon, the princess said:

"Master Brandon, I am glad to see you, and regret exceedingly that our friend of Buckingham should so thirst for your blood." She then led him to the king and queen, to whom he made his bow, and the pair continued their walk about the room. Mary again alluded to the skirmish at the door and said laughingly:

"I would have come to your help, but I knew you were amply able to take care of yourself. I was sure you would worst the duke in some way. It was better than a mummy, and I was glad to see it. I do not like him."

The king did not open these private balls, as he was supposed at least not to be their patron, and the queen, who was considerably older than Henry, was averse to such things. So the princess opened her own balls, dancing for a few minutes, with the floor entirely to herself and partner. It was the honor of the evening to open the ball with her, and quite curious to see how men put themselves in her way and stood so as to be easily observed and, perchance, chosen. Brandon after leaving Mary had drifted into a corner of the room back of a group of people and was talking to Wolsey—who was always very friendly to him—and to Master Cavendish, a quaint, quiet, easy little man, full of learning and kindness, and a warm friend to the Princess Mary.

It was time to open the ball, and from my place in the musicians' gallery I could see Mary moving about among the guests, evidently looking for a partner, while the men resorted to some very transparent and amusing expedients to attract her attention. The princess, however, took none of the bidders, and soon, I noticed, she espied Brandon standing in the corner with his back toward her.

Something told me she was going to ask him to open the dance, and I regretted it, because I knew it would set every nobleman in the house against him, they being very jealous of the "lowborn favorites," as they called the untitled friends of royalty. Sure enough, I was right. Mary at once began to make her way over to the corner, and I heard her say, "Master Brandon, will you dance with me?"

It was done prettily. The whole girl changed as soon as she found herself in front of him. In place of the old time confidence, strongly tinged with arrogance, she was almost shy, and blushed and stammered with quick coming breath, like a burgher maid before her new found gallant. At once the courtiers made way for her, and out she walked, leading Brandon by the hand. Upon her lips and in her eyes was a rare, triumphant smile, as if to say:

"Look at this handsome new trophy of my bow and spear."

I was surprised and alarmed when Mary chose Brandon, but when I turned to the musicians to direct their play I imagine, if you can, my surprise when the leader said:

"Master, we have our orders for the first dance from the princess."

Imagine also, if you can, my double surprise and alarm—nay, almost my terror—when the band struck up Jane's "Selling Lass." I saw the look of surprise and inquiry which Brandon gave Mary, standing there demurely by his side, when he first heard the music, and I heard her nervous little laugh as she nodded her head, "Yes," and stepped closer to him to take position for the dance. The next moment she was in Brandon's arms, flying like a sylph about the room. A buzz of astonishment and delight greeted them before they were half way around and then a great clapping of hands, in which the king himself joined. It was a lovely sight, although I think a graceful woman is more beautiful in La Galliard than any other dance or, in fact, any other situation in which she can place herself.

After a little time the dowager Duchess of Kent, first lady in waiting to the queen, presented herself at the musicians' gallery and said that her majesty had ordered the music stopped, and the musicians, of course, ceased playing at once. Mary thereupon turned quickly to me.

"Master, are our musicians weary that they stop before we are through?" The queen answered for me in a high voiced Spanish accent: "I ordered the music stopped. I will not permit such an indecent exhibition to go on longer."

Fire sprang to Mary's eyes and she exclaimed: "If your majesty does not like the way we do and dance at my balls, you can retire as soon as you see fit. Your face is a kill-mirth anyway." It never took long to rouse her ladyship.

mors of the skin, scalp and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfigurement is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest and most effective treatment available, viz., The Cuticura Treatment.

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap to cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool the blood in the severest cases, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin tormented infants and children, and the comfort of worn-out parents.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings and chafings, in the form of washes for annoying irritations and inflammations, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves.

A BANKER'S DAUGHTER

thing she could hear of, and at last got more relief from a 50c bottle of

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

than from anything she had ever tried. She was suffering from Stomach Trouble and Constipation. She writes us that she has gained 28 pounds and is fully cured. Name on application.

Mrs. Wm. Collier, 125 N. Rober St., Chicago, Ill., under date of Nov. 2, 1901, writes: "I have been troubled with Indigestion and Nervousness and Weakness in the back for seven years. I have been to four doctors and have taken many kinds of medicine, but could not get cured. I saw your advertisement in the paper and I sent for a trial bottle. Even the trial bottle did me good, so I sent for a $1.00 bottle of my druggist, but he had only a fifty-cent bottle, so I took that, then the next time I got a $1.00 bottle. I am very glad and proud of your medicine and I am willing for you to advertise me anywhere for your remedy."

Four per cent Interest Paid on Savings Accounts.
Money to Loan on Real Estate.....

On the 30th day of March, the National Bank Examiner, while in Paducah, made a thorough examination of this Bank, and gave the following Certificate, to wit:

TO THE DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANICS' AND FARMERS' SAVINGS BANK, Paducah, Ky.

GENTLEMEN: In compliance with the request of your Vice President and Manager, Mr. Geo. C. Thompson, I made an examination of the condition of your Bank at the close of business on March 30th. I verified the loans and discounts and found them to agree exactly with the ledger. I found no over-due paper nor excessive loans. Accommodations were very well distributed. I counted the cash and found it to agree with the ledger. No cash items. I verified the individual ledger. I also verified the account with the American-German National Bank and found the same correct. I found the books in exceedingly good condition and the system of bookkeeping commendable. The officers are capable, and their management is efficient and successful.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. MCINTOSH,
National Bank Examiner.

WON HIS BET.

Ernest G. Maddox of Paducah made a wager with a friend last Sunday that he could pass through Briensburg without stopping to see his best girl. He did so, and won the bet. ONE OF THE LARGEST

WHEAT CROP MAY REACH 500,000,000 BUSHELS.

Returns to American Agriculturist show the most remarkable conditions covering the whole winter wheat belt ever noted at this time of year. The average for the whole country is 95 per cent, figures exceeded only once in twenty years of crop reporting. The striking feature is the remarkable uniformity of the state averages. Scarcely a country in the winter wheat belt but shows a crop promise at the beginning of spring growth little short of perfect. The worst thing to be feared would be a drought in May. It is believed the crop will reach 500,000,000 bushels.
